FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA

ATLANTA DIVISION

FILED IN CLERK'S OFFICE

Plaintiffs,

v.

CIVIL ACTION NO.
1:17-cv-2989-AT

BRAD RAFFENSPERGER, et al.,

Defendants.

RESPONSE TO MOTION TO DENY INTERVENTION

The motion to intervene is timely. As timely as any could be in a case left by Brian Kemp for Secretary Raffensperger that has been pending for over six years existing in the land that time forgot. Not only is the motion timely, proposed intervenor has already suffered not being able to cast a meaningful ballot during the election cycle post 2020 in which relief was denied solely upon the fact that the 2020 election was at hand. The better practice would have been for the initial request for relief to have been refiled subsequent to the 2020 election to spare further loss of rights by proposed intervenor, voters of the state of Georgia, and perhaps the nation.

This is to advise the Court that I was not served with the motion to deny intervention as indicated in that filing. I only became aware of the filing when checking PACER November 29 and consider that I was served at that time.

Respectfully submitted,

Deborah J. Davis
